rail and seated himself beside the witwhen Mrs. Thaw saw him she smiled faintly and turned her eyes to the District Attorney, who stood before her. The District Attorney began by showing Mrs. Thaw a photograph of herself taken in a kimona, and asked if she could recall the date of the picture.

"I think it was taken in 1994."

Jerome Begins Probing.

"Where did you live after your return from Europe in 1904 until the time of your marriage?" Mrs. Thaw gave eight or nine addresses.

"Was the defendant present when this photograph in a kimona was taken?"

"I don't think so."

"Did not the kimona belong to the defendant?"

"Did not he take the kimona to the studio that day."
"I don't think so."
"Did not the defendant give you the

Mr. Jerome exhibited another photo and asked when it was taken.
"Late in 1901 I think."
"Were you acting at that time?"
"Yes."
"What company?"
"Florodora."

Florodora.

Was this a Florodora costume?'

No. It was the red dress my mother de me, and the red cape Stanford made me, and the red cape Stanford White gave me." "How long did you live in Philadelphia?
"I don't remember just how long we lived in Philadelphia."
"How old were you then?"
"Fourteen."

Does Not Show Mercy.

Mr. Jerome by his next few questions indicated that he did not intend to spare the feelings of the young woman in any way. He interrogated her sharply as to the details of her dress when she was posing for artists in Philadelphia and New York. He persisted in certain questions even after Mr. Delmas had objected, and insisted on having definite answers, though Mrs. Thaw usually said she could not exactly remember.

though are that we want to texacily remember.

"Was there any exposure of the person, or did you wear the so-called artistic draperies?"

"I would not say that," replied the witness.

"I posed in a Greek dress and Turkish Mr. Jerome persisted with questions as to the exposure of the person and Mrs.

Mr. Jerome persisted with question to the exposure of the person and Mrs. Thaw replied:

"I posed with low neck draperies after I was upon the stage.

"The pictures were like those ordinarily seen in photographers windows?"

Mr. Delmas objected to this, and Mr. Jerome withdrew the question.

"Where did you and your mother live after coming to New York?"

"In West Thirty-eighth street, between Fifth and Sixth avenues."

"What was your first theatrical employment?"

"With the Florodora company"
"And you contributed to the family

Had Her Picture Published.

"Didn't you take a photograph of your-self to the Broadway magazine for pub-lication?"

"And it was published under the name of Evelyn Florence?"

"Yes."
"This was before you went upon the And the reporters came to your house for more pictures? Did you become acquainted with Ted

"Yes."
Marks is a vaudeville manager.
"And received letters from him?"
"Yes."
"Were those letters among the package of letters you burned after taking them from a storage warehouse in this city?"

yr. Mr. Delmas objected and was sustained. 'Didn't you visit a warehouse with a lawyer?"
"Tes."
"Mr. Hartridge."
"Did you take some letters out of the Examine any while there?"

"Didn't you visit the warehouse with another lawyer?"

"Yes."
What was the lawyer's name?"
"Warren, I think."
"Have you any letters from Stanford

Letters to Other Girl.

It developed that the forty-two letters introduced yesterday and identified by Mrs. Thaw were written by Stanford White to another girl.

"Where are Stanford White's letters?"
"Mr. Hartridge has some of them."
Mr. Jerome demanded the production of the letters. Thaw's counsel made no

"Did you give those letters to Mr.
"No."
"Who did?"

"Who did?"
"You gave them to your husband?"
"You gave them to your husband?"
"Yes."
"Was there a single word of Impropriety or indecency in the letters from White to you?"
"I don't remember."
"Did you keep all of Mr. White's letters?"

"No."
"Have you a copy of the letter you wrote Mr. White from Boulogae?"
"No."
"Do you remember its contents?"
"No."

'How many letters did you give Mr. "How many letters did you give Air. Thaw?"
"Fourteen."
She testified that she gave the fourteen letters to Mr. Thaw in Faris in 1903. Afterwards she received them from Thaw valet and gave then to Thaw again, presumably after he had shot White.

White.
All of these letters were received from White while she was abroad in 1993 and were given to Thaw.
"Where are those letters now?"
"I don't know."
"When did you see them last?"
"In Paris in 1993."
"Have you been interrorated by the counsel for the defense as to their contents?"
"No."

A GOOD BREAKFAST Some Persons Never Know What it Means.

A good breakfast, a good appetite and good digestion mean everything to the man, woman or child who has anything to Jo, and wants to get a good start toward doing it.

A Mo. man tells of his wife's "good breakfast" and also supper, made out of Grape-Nuts and also supper, made out of Grape-Nuts and eream. He says:

"I should just like to tell you how much good Grape-Nuts has done for my wife. After being in poor health for the last 18 years, during part of the time scarcely anything would stay ou her stomach long enough to nourish her, finally at the suggestion of a friend she tried Grape-Nuts.

tried Grape Nuts.
Now, after about four weeks on this delicious and nutritious food, she has picked up most wonderfully and seems as well as anyone can be.

as well as anyone can be.
"Every morning she makes a good breakfast on Grape-Nuts eaten just as it comes from the package with cream or milk added; and then again the or milk added; and then again the same at supper and the change in her is wonderful.

"We can't speak too highly of Grape-Nuts as a food after our remarkable experience." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.—Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

"Only in a general way." "Only in a general way."
Mr. Jerome questioned the witness length regarding letters which we placed in a warehouse before she we to Europe and taken out after her a

Gave the Letters to Thaw.

"What became of these letters?"
"I gave them to Mr. Thaw."
Mrs. Thaw fenced with the District Attorney quite skiffully at times, keeping her wits well about her.
Mr. Jerome spent an hour or more on the subject of White's letters, Mrs. Thaw declaring that the 14 letters which were turned over to Mr. Harridge were the only ones she positively knew were in existence.

When Mr. Jerome would ask occasion when Mr. Jerome would ask occasion-ally a very pointed question, evidently for the purpose of tripping up the witness. Mrs. Thaw would reply with an emphatic nod of her head, "I didn't say that." "You are sure these 14 letters in Mr. Hartridge's hands are the only ones in Hartridge's hands are the only ones in existence?"

"There may be some in a trunk."

"Where is the trunk?"

"In Paris."

"Whereabouts in Paris?"

Mrs. Thaw gave the name of a warehouse in the French capital.

"Didn't you in 1903 take letters from a warehouse in this city?"

"Yes. I took some at that time."

"Weren't some sent you afterward?"

"Yes, from the trunk in the warehouse."

Mrs. Thaw said the goods in the ware-house were stored in her mother's name and there was a row over letting her have anything. Stanford White arranged to get the trunk out, however.
"I don't remember any letters in the trunk, however," added Mrs. Thaw.
"Why dld not you give Thaw all of Stanford White's letters instead of just ome of them?"

"I didn't say that."
"You said some were in a trunk in Paris."

"I said they might be."
"Didn't you retain some letters?"
"I don't know that I did."
"Thaw was pressing you all the time to give him all the details of this affair with Stanford White, wasn't he?"

with Stanford White, wasn't he?"
Yes.
You gave him the letters before your marriage?"
"Yes."

Back to the Scandal.

Mr. Jerome here dropped the subject of letters and turned to Mrs. Thaw's story "How long were you unconscious in that Twenty-fourth street house at the time of your experience with Stanford White?"

"I don't remember."
"I don't remember."
"Was it after midnight that you beime unconscious?"
"Yes, I think it was."
"Was it before daylight?"
"Yes, before daylight," replied Mrs.

Thaw, after hesitating. Mr. Jerome read from Mrs. Thaw's di-rect testimony the statement that she sat up all that night. She replied that she meant the rest of the night after she had been taken home. When did you first meet Ted Marks?" "I think it was in 1900 or early in 1901

"You received letters from him?"
"Yes."
"Up to that time your relations with our mother were friendly."

your mother were the way of the your mother was nothing to show that your mother was willing to sacrifice you for a pecuniary consideration."

"No."

on his feet instantly.

"There is nothing in this case that is even an intimation of such a thing. If I have said anything to lead the learned District Attorney to believe that I think this unfortunate mother sacrificed her daughter, I wish to emphatically deny

"In all the troubles you went through," continued Mr. Jerome, "you never thought anything but that your mother showed a lack of judgment?"
"No."
"What were in the letters Ted Marks wrote you?"

wrote you?"
"I can't remember everything. He said "I can't remember everything. He said he had seen my picture in the papers and would like to place it on the stage."

What Her Mother Thought.

Jerome asked what Mrs. Nesbit it about her daughter going on the "Mamma said I ought not go out with-"Mamma said I ought not go out with-but she ought to go along." "At this time did you know Francis Belmont or Edna Goodrich?"

"No."
"Or James A. Garland?"

No.

No.

The state of the stat "Not while I lived there," she said positively.

"Have you seen him since those days in 1961?"

"I may have passed him on the street."
"I don't mean that way."
"No." said Mrs. Thaw, with a stamp f her foot.

of her foot.

Mrs. Thaw, under questioning, went through the story of her visit to the office of Mr. Fisher, a theatrical manager. They had a letter from Mr. Marks. It was on this occasion that Fisher said he was not running a "baby farm."

He finally agreed to take Miss Nesbit.

"How long did you play in 'Florodora?"

"After several weeks in the chorus I went in the cast. Late in July I went with the 'Geiska."
"Your mother came for you every

"Your mother came for you every night?"
"Yes, until I met Stanford White."
"Who Introduced you to White?"
"Edna Goodrich."
"At the theater in "Florodora."
"You and she were friends?"
"Yes."
"Did you see very much of her?"
"Not much."
"When Edna Goodrich introduced you to Stanford White, was that the first time you had been anywhere with her?"
"Yes."
"During the time you were in the Florodora' company, had you ever been out?"

out?"
"Yes."
"With whom?"
"With Mamma and Mr. Garland."
"Where did you meet Mr. Garland?"
"At the boarding-house on Forty-eighth street."
"Did you ever write any letters to him?"
"I don't remember. I might."

"I don't remember; I might."
"Your mother was not pleased with Mr.
Garland's attentions to you?"

"Yes."
"You had no quarrel with your mother about him?"
"No."

Went With Married Man. "He was a married man?"

"Yes."
"You went yachting with him?"
"Yes, mamma and I went on Satur-Your mother was not pleased with Your mother was not pleased with that?"

"Oh, yes, but she was seasick."

"Is it not true that in the spring of 1991, so far as your relations with your mother were concerned, that you were getting unruly, that your mother still stuck to you, that a married man..."

At this point Mr. Delmas interposed an objection to Mr. Jerome reading from what he termed a statement by Evelyn Thaw's mother.

"If the District Attorney wants the mather's testimony in he should produce her ujon the stand," he said.

"I'd like to, but that it is impossible. You know where she is," said Mr. Jerome.

You know where she is, said Mr. Jerome.

The question regarding Evelvn becoming unruly was allowed to stand.

"No," she answered decidedly.

"Is it not true that that married man was James A. Garland, and that he was reiting a divore, and that you and your mother frequently quarried about him?"

"No, indeed."

"Is it not true that you went along with him upon the yacht?"

"Mamma and I, yes."

"Were you made a co-respondent in Mr. Garland's divorce suit?"

Mr. Delmas objected. The record, he said, was the pest evidence.

Mr. Jerome withdrew the question.

"Who was present upon the yacht besides your mother. Mr. Garland and

Mr. Jerome withdrew the question.
"Who was present upon the yacht besides your mother, Mr. Garland and yourself?"
"No one. The men who worked the Saturday?"

"No but we went several times."
"This was when you were playing in Florodora?"

"Yes."
"Did George Lederer have anything to do with your going into the Florodora cast?"
"Not that I know of."

Never Posed in the Nude. "During this time did you ever pose r an artist in the nude?"

"Never,"
"Ever have any casts made in the "Do you know Mr. Wells, a sculptor?"
"No."
"How long did you know Mr. Gar and?"

"Not long."
"When did your acquaintance with him cease."
"When I met Stanford White."
"Isn't it true that Mr. Garland be came very annoying when you lived a a certain apartment house?"

"No."
"Isn't it true that his annoyances caused your mother to get the telephone girl to refuse to send up his card?"
"I never heard of it."
"Did your mother meet you every evening at the theater?"
"Yes, except when Stanford White

"Tes, except when Samiora while came."
"Did you ever go to Rectors, Burns or Jacks to supper?"
"I remember going once with mamma and another lady."
"Did your brother Howard ever go to the theater for you?"
"I think he did once when mamma was sick."

"I think he did once with him?"

"Did you go home with him?"
"Yes."
"Do you know your brother's writing?"
"Yes."
"Is this his signature?"
Mr. Jerome showed the witness a document, concealing all but the bottom of ment, concealing all but the bottom of the last page. "Yes, I think it is his signature," re-plied Mrs. Thaw. At this point the court took luncheon

Mrs. Thaw was recalled to the stand iter the recess and was asked to identify several photographs of herself. Some of these were additional copies of the fanous picture on which, dressed in a kinona, she posed on a white bearskin.

"These were taken at White's studio in Twenty-second street?" "It was not his studio. He told me it clonged to some one else." Mr. Jerome exhibited the photographs freely.

Afternoon Session.

Mrs. Thaw stated that the pictures were taken upon the day before her experience in the mirrored bedroom.

These are fair types of all the pictures taken that day, are they not?

"There were some taken in low neck."

"That day?"

"Yes".

"Your recollection is clear that you posed in draperies that day?"
"Yes."

"Was there any exposure of the person?"
"They were very low neck."
"You said this morning there was no exposure of the person, did you not?"
"I said Stanford White had some pictures put into a book and gave me the

"You have that book?"
"Yes."
"Will you bring the book here tomor-

"Yes."
"You had luncheon that day in the tudio—was it served from Sherry's?"
"I don't know."
Mr. Jerome here formally offered the hotographs in evidence.
"Were those pictures copyrighted?"
"I don't knew."

White Furnished the Money.

White Furnished the Money.

Mr. Jerome handed Mrs. Thaw several checks and asked if she knew in whose handwriting the indorsements were. Five had been indorsed by her mother; one indorsement she did not recognize.

"In whose writing are the indorsements upon the others?"

"It looks like mine."

"As a matter of fact, does it not look more like your writing than that of any other human being you ever saw write?"

'Yes."

other human being you will be a customary

"Yes."

"Where were you living May, 1902?"

"At the Wellington hotel."

"Except yourself and your mother, whose names were the same, was there another Evelyn Nesbit at the hotel?"

"Not that I know of."

"Were you given checks weekly?"

"Yes."

"Yes."
"Isn't that check in the customary form of the checks you received?"
Mr. Delmas objected.
Mr. Jerome read seven of the checks to the jury. All were indorsed "Evelyn Florence Nesbit."
"While you were living at the Wellington, were you not entitled to and did you not draw $25 a week when you were not playing?"
"Yes."

"Yes."
"Who furnished that money?"

"Stanford White Mr. Jerome next introduced in evidence

Mr. Jerome next introduced in evidence sixteen more checks, each for $25, the indorsements on which were also identified as in Mrs. Thaw's handwriting. The date ran weekly from February 1, 1902, to April 24, 1902.

Mrs. Thaw was asked to identify a number of receipts signed by her and acknowledging receipt of various sums of $25 during 1902. The receipts read.

"Received from the Mercantille Trust company $25, through instructions from Charles Harinett."

Mr. Hartnett was Stanford White's

Mr. Hartnett was Stanford White's 'Wasn't this money received by you in pursuance of an agreement by which you were to receive from Stanford White $25 a week when you were not acting?"

Mrs. Thaw Don't Know. "That is too long a question," pouted hat is too long a question, poured Mrs Thaw.
"I'll break it up for you. Was not there an understanding by which you were to receive $25 of Stanford White's money every week you were not acting?"
"Understanding with whom?" Mrs.
Thaw queried in return.
"With anybody," snapped the District

ttorney.
"I don't know."
"Who did you think was putting up this who did you think was putting up this money for you?"

"Stanford White."
"Were you to receive this money when acting as well as when not acting?"
"I don't know."
"Have you any doubt as you sit there that you were not to receive any money while playing?"
"I have."

while playing?"
"I have."
"Then let me show you some letters by Stanford White, and see if that will not refresh your memory."
Mr. Jerome delved into a big leather pouch. Mrs. Thaw sat rigid. Harry Thaw straightened up from his bent position over the table.
"Now let me ask if you ever saw Mr. Hartnett write?"
"No."

"No." "Ever see his writing?" "Yes."
Mrs. Thaw was given a letter written by Mr. Hartnett, but it did not refresh her memory upon that point.
"Did you ever receive a letter from H.
C. Demming, vice-president of the Mercantile Trust company?"
"I don't remember."

"I don't remember,"
"Do you know if such a letter is in ex-

FINE RECIPE

Mix half pint of good whiskey with two ounces of glycerine and add one-half ounce Concentrated one-half ounce vials packed securely in round air-tight, screw top cases which are intended to protect it from light and retain all the original ozone. Don't use bulk oil of pine or imitations of Concentrated, which are often found using similar name and style of package. They are insoluble and work havoc to the kidneys. Any druggist has the Cencentrated oil of pine. It will also be found a most excellent remedy for lumbago and all forms of uric acid rheumatism. For this purpose it is taken raw, a few drops on sugar at night and morning.

morning.
Concentrated oil of pine is the Concentrated oil of pine is the results of many years experimenting by one of Philadelphia's foremost doctors who after endless research at last secured a truly soluble oil of pine, so make sure to get the real thing. It also makes an excellent saive to be applied externally on the lungs. For this purpose it is mixed with lard or vasciline.

probably destroyed?"

Mr. Deimas objected and was sustained.
"I show you a copy of what purports to be such a letter.

Mr. Deimas objected. The copy was placed in evidence.

After reading it, Mr. Jerome asked:
"Do you now recollect receiving such a letter from Mr. Demming?"

She Cannot Remember.

"I do not: I don't remember much about hat time. I can tell you what I do re-nember if you want to know."
"I'll get to that all right in time. Have you such a letter in your possession

"No."
"Did you ever become aware, in December, 1901, or January, 1902, that a large sum of money, amounting to $1250, had been deposited with the Mercantile Trust company with instructions that on your written application they were to send you $25 weekly from January 1, 1902, to January 1, 1902, or pretend to answer that could not pretend to answer that ion," said Mrs. Thaw, shaking her question," said Mrs. Thaw, shaking her head. "It's the long." "Were you ever informed that a sum of money had been deposited for your benefit in 1992 or 1993?" "I am not sure of the date."

"What amount was deposited?"

"I don't remember."
"Was it a large or small sum?" "I don't remember."
"Did it make no impression on your

"Didn't you know who deposited the "Stanford White." "What was the money deposited for?

not know the money had "Yes."
"Wasn't it to be drawn for your beneit when you were not acting?"
"I don't remember."
"I don't remember."
"I don't remember."

"Did you write this letter?"
Mr. Jerome handed witness a paper. District Altorney read the letter

Appeal for Money. "Dear Sir:—I have not been working all last week and this Will you kindly send my money at once.—Evelyn Nesbit."

"To whom was the letter addressed."

"To whom was the letter addressed?"
"I don't remember."
"From whom did you want the mon-From the Mercantile Trust company.

"How much?"
"I don't remember."
"By whom?"
"Stanford White." "Stanford White.
"When?"
"Late in 1901."
At this point a short recess was ordered by the court in order to give the courtroom an airing.

After the recess Mr. Jerome continued to question the witness upon the subject of money in the Mercanille Trust company, endeavoring to have her admit that she knew she was only entitled to draw against the fund when not employed. Mrs. Thaw continued to parry the question, however.

ployed. Mrs. They continued to party the question, however.

Mr. Jerome then read a letter signed by her to the trust company in which she asked that her money be sent to her as she was not working. Even this did not refresh her memory. She said she thought the letter was dictated by White and probably signed by her, as ne citen did that when the money matters were involved.

CAPITAL STOCK INCREASED

River Implement Company Chose New Officers.

to The Tribune Special to The Tribune.

BURLEY, Ida., Feb. 20.—The capital stock of the Snake River Implement company, whose head office is in Burley, here here increased from $10,000 to has been increased from $10,000 to $28,000. The company has just been reorganized, and its business will be extended over a larger territory in southern Idaho. The company already has branch houses in nearly every sec-has branch houses in nearly every section of Cassia county.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders, held in Burley the following officers were elected: M. D. Whitney, Salt Lake, president; L. W. Robbins, Burley, vice-president and general manager; W. D. Kenyon, Burley, treasurer; M. O. Funk, Oakley, auditor; T. Bailey Lee, Burley, secretary. The directors of the company include, besides the above named officers, Thomas Taylor of Elba and J. D. Fife of Salt Lake.

The following residents of Cassia county are stockholders in the company: Mrs. L. W. Robbins, George Craner, G. E. Craner, J. F. Tracy, M. F. Crosman, Thomas E. Harper, A. M. Beecher, Clarinda Beecher, R. A. Beecher, A. J. Barker, John Lowe, William Jones and H. C. Powers.

Burned Bridge Holds Trains.

Special to The Tribune. LARAMIE, Wyo., Feb. 20.—The burning of a sixty-foot bridge eighteen miles west of this city this afternoon tied up the main line of the Union Patific for several hours, the Los Angeles Limited and Atlantic Express trains being caught west of the bridge and the west bound trains being held here

Hunyadi Janos The Best Natural Laxative

Water for biliousness, torpid liver, sluggish bowels, tudigestion, stomach troubles.

Safe, sure and prompt. Half a glass before breakfast for

CRISIS APPROACHES IN BUTTE STRIKE

Workingmen's Union Has Demanded an Increase of Fifty Cents Per Day in Pay.

MINERS WILL VOTE NEXT MONDAY; MAY WALK OUT

General Strike Impending: Thousands of Men and General Industries Affected.

BUTTE, Mont, Feb. 20.—The far-reaching strike in Butte was spread this morning by a notice served on all em-ployers of a raise in the scale by the Butte Workingmen's union. This organization, the largest in the city, outside the mining trades, embraces laborers of every description, except mining, street sweepers, ditch diggers, shovelers, etc. The members have been getting $3 per day in Butte. Their new scale, as announced today, will take effect March 1, and calls for $3.50 per day. The city of Butte is most heavily affected, but a number of other industries will suffer. The Associated industries will suffer. The Associated Press is informed that many employers will refuse the demands.

The crisis in the situation draws near. The Miners' union will vote next Monday on the proposition to in crease the scale from $3.75 to $4. If their demand is refused and the men strike Butte will witness widespread suffering, as the miners and smelter suffering, as the miners and smeiter-men outnumber all other unions com-bined. A shut-down of the Butte mines would close the smeiters here, in Anaeonda and in Great Falls, and throw out of work, in addition, several thou-sand men engaged in timbering, coal mining, etc.

Affects Twenty Thousand. Affects Twenty Thousand.

A shutdown would cut 20,000 men off the payrolls. The Amalgamated company pays $2,000,000 per month to its Montana employees, and a strike of the miners would paralyze industry throughout the State. It is not too much to state that the development of the State within the next decade hangs very largely upon the vote to be polled Monday by the miners.

There are no developments in the strike of newspaper employees. Rumors of consolidation cannot be traced more of consolidation cannot be traced to an authentic source. The representa-tives of a great Eastern publisher is in the city, ostensibly to negotiate for a building in which to rush in a plant and start a daily newspaper.

The Butte Business Mens association elected officers last night, and empowered the executive board officially to resist the general demands for higher wages in the camp. The asso-ciation will ask the city authorities not to grant the demand submitted today by the Workingmen's union, which was for $3.50 per day. POSTAL GRANTS INCREASE Salaries of Nearly All Employes Are to Be Raised Ten Per Cent.

pecial to The Tribune. NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Clarence H. Mackay, president of the Postal Telegraph Cable company, made the following statement this afternoon: "Statements heretofore made as to the amount of increases in salaries which would be made by the Postal Telegraph Cable company have been entirely unauthorized. The matter was passed upon officially by this company today, however cially by this company today, however, and it was ordered that the salaries of and it was ordered that the salaries of all operators, traffic chiefs, wire chiefs, assistant chief operators, chief opera-tors and managers be increased 10 per-cent, and that this increase shall apply not only to the principal offices, but to all the offices of the company in the United States, effective March 1."

Headaches and Neuralgia from Colds. LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine, the world wide Cold and Grip remedy re-moves cause. Call for full name. Look for signature E. W. Grove. 25c.

Entries at Emeryville.

Special to The Tribune. OAKLAND, Feb. 20 -Following are the entries for the races at Emeryville Thursday afternoon:
First race, five furlongs, selling—Gage
Taylor, Rustler, Brookleaf, Sandpiper,
Elephant Jack, Husky, Wilmore, Adena,
Bathmont, Bonheur, Lady Adelaide, 112;
Sanramon, 103.

Second race, five-eighths, selling—Lu-gano, Miss Turtle, May Pink, Carmania, Pescadera, Louise Fitzgibbons, Calla, Calendar, Azus, Maud McG., 110; Sachet, 105; Jill, 100.

Calendar, Azus, Maud McG., 110. Sachet.
105; Jill, 100.
Third race, mile and an eighth, selling
—Ink, Nabonassar, Kokomo, Royal Red,
Bonar, 119. Cardinal Sarto, 115; Vincentio,
114; The Missourian, 114: Daniel Z., Cheripe, 111; Busy Bee, 109.
Fourth race, mile selling—Little Minister, Treasure Secker, Duke of Orleans,
Doc Craig, George Kilborn, Alaric, Vinton,
112; Bogum, Blanche C., 109; Fairy Street,
107; Peerless Lass, 102.
Fifth race, mile and a sixteenth, selling
—Andrew Mack, 110; St. George, Jr., 109,
Ed. Sheridan, The Borgian, 108; Anvil,
Capt Bush, 106; W. B. Gates, 102; Silver
Wedding, 101; Rolla, 99; Capt, Bennett, 97.

Sixth race, seven-eighths—Cloudlight, Laura F. M., Ethel Day, 107, Princess Titania, 102, Edith James, 39; Grace G.,

TEAM GOES TO LOGAN.

Will Play Basketball Game With B. Y. C. and the Logan Aggies. C. and the Logan Aggies.

The basketball team of the L. D. S. U. will leave this afternoon for Logan, where they are scheduled to play both on Friday and on Saturday. On Friday, the team will meet the team of the Brigham Young college and on Saturday they will meet the Agricultural college team. There will be an excursion run to Logan and it is expected that a latge number of rooters will accompany the boys on their trip.

The opportunity of a lifetime-Salt Lake-Ely at 50 cents.

Fifty Dollars Reward For return of three rings, watch, chain, locket and pin taken from 14 Emery Flats night of January 5. No questions. Tribune Job Printing Co. at 66 W. Second South.

Union Dental Co. 218 South Main. Honest Work. Honest Prices.

Painless Extraction of Teeth er No Pay. All Work Guaranteed. 'Phone Bell 1128-X; Ind. 1126.

Veteran of the Civil War Mr. C. H. Cady, 64 year old, of Worcester, Mass.,

Malt Whiskey, the work greatest tonic stimulant. Thousands of men and womenthis veteran-have been cured by the great medicine, and cannot say veteran of the Civil Wa

has been made vigoro

and strong by Duffy's P much in praise of it. Mr. Cady says: "I am a veterag the Civil war, served three year, am 64 years of age. "I take DUFFY'S PURE MAI WHISKEY before each meal and find the hest of appetizers. I think the there is nothing better for a man ting on in years. I am a temper man and only use your product medicine and only at such times need it '' C. H. Cady, 381 Park nue. Worcester, Mass., Sept. 1st, 19

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

It is recognized everywhere as the unfition, nervousness, typhoid, malaria, every the throat and lungs, and all run down and weakened conditions of the brain and body. It restores youthful vigor to the old by nourishing and feeding the vital forces of life, and maintains the health and strength of the young. It is a food already digested, it is prescribed by doctors of all schools, is used in all the leading hospitals of the world, and is recognized as a family medicine everywhere. It is absolutely pure. Medical advice and a valuable illustrated booklet on diseases sent free. Our guarantee is on every bottle. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold by

WHOA!

To property-owners:

Don't get crazy. Just because Salt Lake City is a good place to live in, because the city is growing and because it has a bright future, don't think you can get four times as much as your property is worth. Don't think you can bunco somebody into buy something which is worth a great deal less than you ask.

If you want to make money, take a fair profit when you can get it, and then buy something else. You won't regret that

If you want to see the city grow and pros-

It isn't fair, and it's foolish.

If you will take a fair price for your property, we can sell it for you.

per, and yourself as well, don't be porcine.

STOWE & PALMER, HOWARD S. STOWE.

"YOU CAN'T KEEP A GOOD TOWN DOWN."

THE REALTY MEN, Suite 214, Herald Building. Both 'Phones 4044

GARDNER DAILY STORE NEWS

Things that help men to be well dressed. A wrong selection of one of the many essential smaller articles may easily mar the otherwise well dressed man. Such as Ties (25e Collars (15e and to $1.50.)

25c.) Shirts (50c to $3.50.) Cuffs (15e to 50e.)

SALOON OPPORTUNITY.

We are commissioned by the owner of a saloon, located We are commissioned by the owner of a saloon, located in a good farming town in southeastern Idaho, to find him a buyer for his business. Great opening for right man. Apply for particulars to

RIEGER & LINDLEY. "The Whiskey Merchants."